Human Trafficking

- HB1559 (2020) – Provides protection & services for victims
 - Brings our state's human trafficking laws full circle by addressing specific needs of child victims of human trafficking and providing much needed funding for shelters and services.
 - Currently, there is no specialized shelter meeting the immediate or long-term needs of child victims of trafficking the state.
 - Mississippi's childcare agencies were willing to take these children, but the placements are not ideal. Because they were not receiving specialized services, these children cycled through the system, utilizing multiple placements and hundreds of thousands of state dollars. Ultimately, the children would often run away without receiving any specialized care to prevent future victimization.
 - Human trafficking victims need specialized, long-term care.
 - HB 1559 will provide a revenue stream from fees on those committing crimes against children, affording a means to develop shelters to address the specific needs of these victims.

Human Trafficking
